An inclusive and comprehensive source of information for those wanting to learn more about world religions.

A unique and comprehensive resource for organizations wishing to demonstrate inclusivity and a welcoming environment for customers and co-workers. An excellent tool to recruit, retain and motivate.

We are privileged to live in a society that is diverse, multicultural and engaging. A common theme underlying mutual respect and understanding is simply getting to know each other better. Festivals and religious observances are an important part of many peoples' lives and being aware of these occasions fosters harmony in our personal and working lives.

The Multifaith Calendar facilitates understanding of these religious occasions and festivals important to our diverse cultural society, providing a basis for discussion and involvement. To this end, our Multifaith Calendar is held in high regard for its accuracy, integrity and visual impact and will be an invaluable resource in your home and workplace.

We rely on word of mouth referrals for much of our activities. If you enjoyed your experience with us, please tell your friends by sharing this email on your social networks or forwarding to their email address. We appreciate your support!
