Re

For Mike Moroz, meeting with faith leaders is all about community building. That's why the NDP MLA, a cabinet minister, created a faith council for his River Heights constituency last year.

"It's a way for me to get to know local clergy and other leaders," he said about the meetings, which bring together leaders from the constituency's 14 churches and four synagogues four times a year.

It's also a chance for him to hear about the ways the various congregations are serving in the area — and how the provincial government can help.

Mike Moroz, MLA for River Heights, (back left) created a faith council for the constituency last year. People gathered at the parish hall at St. George's Anglican Church last month.

Déclaration

*Jour du drapeau national du Canada
Le 15 février*

At the stroke of noon on February 15, 1965, Canada's red and white maple leaf flag was raised for the very first time.

The flag belongs to all Canadians; it is an emblem we all share.

Although simple in design, Canada's flag well reflects the common values we hold so dear: freedom, peace, respect, justice and tolerance.

Canada's flag is a symbol that unites Canadians and expresses throughout the world and always our pride in being Canadian.

The maple leaf flag pays homage to our geography, reflects the grandeur of our history and represents our national identity.

Our flag thus honours Canadians of all origins who, through their courage and determination, have helped to build and are continuing to build our great country: a dynamic country that is open to the future.

Therefore, I, Jean Chrétien, Prime Minister of Canada, declare that February 15 will be celebrated henceforth as National Flag of Canada Day.

C'est sur le coup de midi, le 15 février 1965, que le drapeau unifolié rouge et blanc a été hissé pour la toute première fois.

Ce drapeau appartient aux Canadiennes et aux Canadiens; c'est un emblème que nous partageons toutes et tous.

Le drapeau du Canada est un symbole qui rallie la population canadienne et qui exprime partout dans le monde et pour toujours notre fierté d'être Canadiens.

L'unifolié rend hommage à notre géographie, il exprime la grandeur de notre histoire et il représente notre identité nationale.

Notre drapeau rend aussi hommage aux Canadiennes et aux Canadiens de toutes origines qui, par leur courage et leur détermination, ont contribué et continuent à bâtir notre grand pays : un pays dynamique et ouvert sur l'avenir.

C'est pourquoi, moi, Jean Chrétien, Premier ministre du Canada, je déclare que le 15 février marquera dorénavant le Jour du drapeau national du Canada.

Let us be proud of our flag! Let us recognize how privileged we are to live in Canada, this magnificent country that encompasses our history, our hopes and our future.

Soyons fiers de notre drapeau! Reconnaissons le privilège que nous avons de vivre au Canada, ce pays magnifique à la hauteur de notre histoire, de nos espérances et de notre avenir.
