The world today faces numerous crises related to climate change, violence, increased political and economic instability, among other calamities, which have led many to turn inward through a sense of despair. Our Whole Society (OWS) Conference explores insights from diverse faith traditions and secular perspectives, and will be a forum for sharing grassroots experiences of individuals and communities making positive contributions to Canadian society.

Under the auspices of Canadian Interfaith Conversation (CIC), and now in its seventh iteration, this biennial OWS Conference will address challenging questions:

*What conceptions of hope encourage and sustain collective action?
How do we recognize the gravity of challenges before humanity while working toward a more positive collective future?
What hope can we draw upon to meet the most pressing demands of our time?*

Topics will be addressed under the thematic framework, Fostering Hope in a Divided World.

OWS is a national conference held for the first time in Winnipeg, offered in partnership with Manitoba Multifaith Council, Canadian Museum for Human Rights, Mauro Institute for Peace & Justice at St Paul's College - University of Manitoba, Martin Luther University College in Waterloo and the Centre for Philosophy, Religion, and Social Ethics - Institute for Christian Studies, Toronto.
